

Do You Scrape?

If you do we can furnish you with the needed articles to scrape with. The Columbus Steel Scraper is the handiest for quick work on plantation or road work and the Revolving Scraper is a little handier. If this is too warm work for you, buy a good Bengal Razor and take a scrape. Don't know us? what's the difference, call in and scrape up an acquaintance and you will find that you are treated so well that you will want to come again.

CASE OF JIM HEWSON.

Testimony Taken Up Forenoon in Police Court.

The case of Jim Hewson, the keeper of a place in Kakaako, came up in the Police Court this forenoon. Hewson was charged with selling spirituous liquor without a license. Attorney De Bolt appeared for the defendant and Marshal Brown for prosecution.

Hack drivers, women of questionable character, frequenters of Hewson's place, making some twenty in all, were called as witnesses and the case continued until 12 noon. The witnesses on the side of the defense were singularly lacking in memory and the witnesses for the prosecution showed the same weakness. One of the young men stated that he lost his senses after the theater on the night Hewson was arrested and that everything he knew about the case had been told him next day.

One of the hackmen said he only drank at New Year's time and Judge Wilcox asked him how many New Year's days there were on his calendar.

At about noon, Marshal Brown stated that Mary Morris, one of the witnesses, upon being told by an officer that she was wanted to testify in the case, stated that the Marshal might be blown or words to that effect. The prosecution had not made a case and he did not believe the testimony of Mary Morris would help out at all. He would therefore ask that a nolle prosequi be entered.

At this, Judge Wilcox announced that he intended to continue the case until Monday and that Mary Morris must be brought before him. People could not fool with the court in that manner. Even if it required force, the woman must be brought in.

NO MONEY FOR HUNGARY.

Claim for Damages Because of Rioters Killed at Hazleton Denied.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The State Department, after mature consideration, has declined to recognize the claim of the Austro-Hungarian Government for indemnity on account of the Hungarian strikers killed by Sheriff Martin's posse at Hazleton, Pa., Sep. 10, 1897. The claim has been pending for many months upon the basis of a report filed with the State Department by Robert D. Cox, the representative of the Austro-Hungarian Government. The department's action is based upon a special opinion prepared by Solicitor W. L. Penfield covering the entire field of national responsibility in cases of mob violence or rioting.

Solicitor Penfield recites the evidence which resulted in the acquittal of Sheriff Martin, and finds, in effect, that the strikers were disturbers of the peace and violators of the law, and that they brought destruction upon themselves by refusing to obey the lawful command of the Sheriff to disperse.

TO INVESTIGATE MILES

Court to Decide Charges Made by the General.

The President Outlines Their Course—Must Give an Opinion on the Army Beef.

Washington, February 9.—The President has appointed a court of inquiry to examine into the charges touching the meat furnished during the war with Spain and other matters involved in the charges made by General Miles against the administration of war affairs. The order for the court is as follows:

"War Department, Adjutant-General's office, Washington, February 9, 1899.—The following order is published for the information and guidance of all concerned: 'In accordance with the instructions of the President of February 3, 1899, a court of inquiry, to consist of the following named officers, is hereby appointed to meet in this city on February 15, 1899. Detail for the court:

"Major-General James F. Wade, United States Volunteers.
"Brigadier-General George W. Davis, United States Volunteers.
"Colonel G. L. Gillespie, Corps of Engineers, United States Army.
"Lieutenant Colonel George B. Davis, Deputy Judge Advocate-General, United States Army, recorder.

"The court is hereby directed to investigate the allegations of the Major-General commanding the Army in respect to the unfitness for issue of certain articles of food furnished by the subsistence department to the troops in the field during the recent operations in Cuba and Porto Rico, in addition to its findings of fact, the court will submit an opinion upon the merits of the case, together with such recommendations of further proceedings as may be warranted by the facts developed in the course of the inquiry. The officers named will repair to this city for the purposes herein directed and upon the adjournment of the court will return to their proper stations. The travel enjoined is necessary for the public service.

R. A. ALGER, "Secretary of War."
General Miles, when seen, had nothing to say respecting the appointment of the court. He has been accumulating a large amount of evidence along the line of the inquiry, but he has not chosen any counsel, and a large part of his evidence has been already transmitted to the War Investigation Commission.

Is Running Two Vessels.
Captain Nelson of the Ada is now running both that vessel and the Waialua. He returned from Kauai with the Ada yesterday and, returning to find the Waialua loaded, will take her out tomorrow. While the Waialua is away, the Ada will be loaded and Captain Nelson will take her out again when he returns.
